Welcome to the November 2003 edition. We're closing in on the end of another year. It's difficult to believe that Christmas is just over a month away. Next month, I'll include the annual selection of sites dealing with the Christmas season and the upcoming New Year. If you have any favourite sites for the holidays, why not send them along for the next issue. I am including one pre-Christmas site, particularly of interest to any of your kids or grandchildren. It's Canada Post's instructions on how to write or e-mail Santa!

Our Monthly Special Zone for November features sites on Veterans' Day, also known as Remembrance Day in some countries, such as Canada. It is also Thanksgiving Day in the U.S. And, November 2003 marks the 40th anniversary of the assassination of John F. Kennedy. The amount of information and number of websites relating to the Kennedy assassination is overwhelming. I have included just a couple of the more complete and interesting sites on this subject.

Important Notice
I wish to advise everybody of some changes at Radio H.F. I have a new URL for the Radio H.F. website and a new e-mail address to accompany it:

New Radio H.F. website: www3.sympatico.ca/radiohf/ (http://www3.sympatico.ca/radiohf/)
New Radio H.F. e-mail: radiohf@sympatico.ca

The e-mail address for the Newsletter remains the same. The changes only affect my business, Radio H.F.

We welcome any new subscribers to the Newsletter. We invite everyone to participate by sending contributions for future editions of the Newsletter.

The October Survey results

Last month's question about Internet search engines generated a lot of interest. The question was What search engine do you use most frequently to search the Internet?

Seventy-three people answered the question, with one search engine dominating by far above all others. That was "Google" with 53 votes. The only other search engines receiving more than one vote were MSN with 8 votes and Yahoo with 7. Sure seems like Google has a stranglehold on this category.

The November Survey

Let's turn our attention to a subject that often sparks thoughts of mistrust and controversy. The subject is politics. Some of the world's most respected and famous people have been politicians but, then again, some of the most hated and deceitful people in the world have come from the world of politics. Let's see who you admire and trust.

Our question is What current day politician or government leader do you most trust or respect, and which one do you trust or respect the least? One answer for each category, please. This should prove most interesting.

Please send your response by e-mail to hfnewsletter@yahoo.com.

The Kennedy Assassination

mcadams.posc.mu.edu/home.htm (http://mcadams.posc.mu.edu/home.htm)

This website is dedicated to debunking the mass of misinformation and disinformation surrounding the murder of JFK. If you are believer in Oswald as a lone gunman, you are likely to enjoy this website, since most of that misinformation and disinformation has come from conspiracists. But if you are a sophisticated conspiracist, you likely understand that the mass of silly nonsense in conspiracy books and documentaries does no service to the cause of truth in the assassination, and simply buries the "case for conspiracy" under layers of bunk.

The John F. Kennedy Assassination Home Page

These pages are not dedicated to tell only the one side, the theory of the former District Attorney of New Orleans. They are intended to be a source of all facts about the assassination which are available. They are intended to be a reference for everyone who is really interested in this topic, and they are intended to wake the interest of anybody who believes that no one is above the law.

Low Power AM Radio Network

Via: Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

The home page states, "The Low Power AM Radio Network has been in existence for over a year now. In the past we've simply used the website in order to showcase [American] Part 15 AM broadcast outlets with websites. Our ultimate goal of building a one-stop shop for the Part 15 AM community went unrealized due to time constraints and a lack of source material. Now we unveil the beginnings of your new one stop shop to help you build your own legal, unlicensed AM community radio station."

The Mediumwave Alliance

www.part15.org/mwa/index.html (http://www.part15.org/mwa/index.html)
Via: Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

Medium Wave Alliance (established 1 October 1997) is a loose confederation of people who are interested in receiving or transmitting unorthodox signals on medium wave frequencies (the AM broadcast band). This includes, among other topics, very low power unlicensed broadcasting that is legal in some countries (e.g., under the Part 15 rules in the US). The purpose of MWA is to help radiophiles share information about these activities and to encourage more people to participate. MWA has no headquarters, no membership dues, and no annoying internal politics. Anyone who claims to be a member of MWA is a member. We hope you'll enjoy your visit to our pages. If you have any information that would be interesting to other visitors, we hope you'll consider donating it to this website.

Armed with information from local author and historian, John Taylor from Bletchley, they visited and interviewed men in their late seventies who were specially enlisted more than 60 years ago for secret wireless operations during World War II. As a result of this extensive and fascinating research, two one-hour documentaries have been made about the secret use of wireless equipment (much of which was of American manufacture) in the Allies' battle with the Axis powers.

The following is a listing of clubs, groups, nets and radio broadcasts which I either operate, present, or am actively involved in.

Canadian International DX Club

CIDX is Canada's national radio monitoring club, serving radio hobbyists since 1962. This is CIDX's 41th year of serving its members. Our monthly newsletter, Messenger, covers all aspects of the radio monitoring hobby. Sample copies of recent issues are available for $2.00 each, in Canada or the U.S., or $3 elsewhere. Membership is open to radio hobbyists worldwide. Visit the CIDX website (http://www.anarc.org/cidx/) (www.anarc.org/cidx/) for complete information, as well as special features and website profiles, or to get a membership application.
